

CODE OF ETHICS

FOR CORPORATE SUPPORTERS & PARTNERS

As a professional industry peak body, Aged and Community Services Australia (ACSA) expects all Corporate Supporters and Partners to abide by its Code of Ethics.

All Corporate Supporters and Partners will contribute to the high reputation of the industry through:

- a commitment to participate in and contribute to the activities of ACSA
- a commitment to uphold the terms and conditions contained within their formal agreements
- a commitment to supporting the work of ACSA in bringing important industry issues to the forefront of government and corporate discussion
- a commitment to manage their organisation's interactions with the aged and community services industry in a manner that supports the principles and work of ACSA and its federated states and promotes integrity of the aged and community care industry.

Corporate Supporters and Partners of ACSA shall:

- Support the peak body in its endeavours to lobby government by commenting on and providing feedback on various issues as requested by ACSA from time to time.
- Commit to communicating with members in a professional and supportive manner.
- Advise ACSA of any known issues that may hinder or affect the reputation of the peak body or the Corporate Supporter/Partner packages and/or attract unfavourable media comment or coverage.
